REVERSES JUDGE S. W. WILLIAMS

Superintendents of Schools Need Not Be Qualified Voters.

POLLARD'S OPINION

Attorney General of Virginia Affirms Views of His Predecessor, Major William A. Anderson.

Richmond, August 1.—Attorney General John Garland Pollard yesterday afternoon rendered an opinion on the legal right of the State Board of Education to appoint as division superintendnts persons not legally qualified to vote in the division territory in which they are to be employed. The Attorney General's opinion reverses the opinion of his predecessor, Judge Samuel W. Williams, under which the Board has been operating for several years. Judge Williams held that only qualified voters of the territory embraced by a division are eligible to election as division superintendents of schools.

"Honorable R. C. Stearnes,
"Superintendent of Public Instruction:

"Dear Sir—Referring to your inquiry, I beg to say that after full consideration, I am of the opinion that in the election of division superintendents the State Board of Education is not confined to applicants who are qualified voters in the division for which the superintendent is to be elected.

"Yours very truly,
"JOHN GARLAND POLLARD,
"Attorney General of Virginia."

The request of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the opinion of the Attorney General on the law governing the election of division superintendents was inspired by inquiries coming from Petersburg, Newport News and other points, where candidates living outside the division territory are preferred. The question was raised in the State Board of Education four years ago, when F. B. Fitzpatrick was a candidate for division superintendent at Bristol. His candidacy was challenged, although there was no question as to his being the preferred candidate. The Board, however, abiding by the opinion of Judge Williams, then Attorney General, did not elect Mr. Fitzpatrick, but retained him as active, if not actual, division superintendent. When he had established a residence and was a qualified voter he was formally elected.

Prior to the Fitzpatrick case, when Major William A. Anderson, the former Attorney General, was a member of the State Board of Education, the Board was accustomed to elect regardless of the candidate's eligibility as a resident voter. Major Anderson's opinion as to the law was obviously the same as the present Attorney-General's. He was not called upon, however, during his term in the Attorney General office to give a formal opinion on the question.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Transatlantic service of passenger and freight steamships, with sailings between German and American ports, has been practically suspended for an indefinite period, owing to the international situation abroad. By wireless yesterday the Hamburg-American Line recalled its vessel, President Grant, and the North German Lloyd its Grosser Kurfuerst, both of which sailed from New York Thursday, the former ship for Hamburg and the other for Bremen. Each of these lines announced that its ships would be held until further notice at the points where they are now in port, including Hamburg, Bremen, New York and Boston. Ships now in mid-ocean will be held similarly at their points of destination.

The President and the administration acted promptly yesterday to reassure the country against any threatening financial dangers growing out of the European war situation. First, the President took steps to bring about an immediate completion of the organization of the Federal Reserve Board in order that the new currency law may become effective. Secretary McAdoo, expressing approval of the closing of stock exchanges throughout the country, issued a statement announcing that a $500,000,000 issue of emergency currency, waiting at the Treasury Department, would be made immediately available to the national banks.

The headquarters of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization, of London, sent a proclamation to all its branches in the United Kingdom ordering the cessation of all acts of militancy during the continuance of the international crisis.

Relatives in Spartanburg, S. C., received word last night of the death of Rev. W. Norwood Tillinghast, an Episcopal clergyman, of Washington, D. C., at Morgantown, N. C., while attempting to board a moving train early yesterday. He fell under the wheels. He was a son of the Rev. J. H. Tillinghast, of Eastover, S. C. The deceased was educated at the Episcopal Theological Seminary near Alexandria, and was rector of an Episcopal Church in Rappahanneck county some time ago.

Bart and James Cantrell, brothers, were hanged at Gainesville, Ga., yesterday for the murder of Arthur Hawkins a year ago. With the hope of saving Bart Cantrell, who was 17 years old when he shot Hawkins, an appeal was made to Governor Slaton for executive clemency, but he refused to interfere. Mrs. Hawkins, convicted of having instigated the murder, now is serving a life term. It was brought out at the trial that Mrs. Hawkins wrote to James Cantrell and urged that he kill her husband; that she bought cartridges, and that Bart Cantrell was persuaded to commit the crime for a small reward.

United States Senator Thomas F. Gore, using his heavy walking stick, struck Tom Moore, a farmer, over the head at Altus, Okla., yesterday, completely shattering the cane. Senator Gore struck Moore during a political argument on the streets of Altus shortly after the two men had been introduced by Ellis Gore, a brother of the Senator, and whose home is in Altus. Moore, according to witnesses, replied: "Yes, just such d——d men as you sold out the Democratic party." Senator Gore drew back with his walking stick, and before Moore could dodge, the cane descended upon the farmer's head. Moore is alleged then to have said, "Look out, you know I can't fight a blind man."

Henry Spencer, murderer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, was hanged yesterday in the county jail at Wheaton, Ill. Standing on the trap Spencer repeated three psalms. Spencer murdered Mrs. Rexroat, a teacher of dancing, ten months ago, having lured her to a suburb with a promise of a professional engagement. He shot her through the head, took her suit case and diamond ring, and placed the body on a railroad track.

CIRCUMSTANCES AGAINST WOMAN

BLOW TO THE DEFENSE

Louisa Courthouse, Va., August 1.—Attorneys for the prosecution have come into possession of new evidence, which, unless refuted, will seriously embarras the defense. The evidence is in the nature of a statement made to Commonwealth's Attorney Bibb and Attorney Fulton, his associate, by Charles F. Johnston, the Richmond railway clerk, whose testimony so surprised the defense Thursday.

Johnston told the two attorneys that he heard Miss Wood say that when she ran down into the store and found Mrs. Hall leaning over Victor's body, Mrs. Hall told her she was trying to make her husband forget what had happened.

This bears out the statement made by Miss Ruby Chewning before the grand jury. Moreover, it is regarded as significant in view of the testimony given by M. F. Peers, who told the ury of Mrs. Hall's message to Miss Wood which was that she must not tell the grand jury anything she had not told the coroner.

The railway clerk was visiting Miss Wood's home one evening when she told, according to his statemnts, what Mrs. Hall said.

Johnston's statemnt as given to Commonwealth's Attorney Bibb and Attorney Fulton was as follows.

"I was at Miss oWd's home, I don't remember the exact day, but I know it was after Mrs. Hall was indicted. Miss oWod was in the room and several members of the family were there.

"Miss Wood said that when she got down into the store from her room, Mrs. Hall, with an ammonia bottle in her hand, was beding over Victor's body. She said she asked Mrs. Hall what she was doing and Mrs. Hall said she was trying to make Victor forget what had happened.

Counsel clashed yesterday for the first time in the Hall case. The argument, which involved the admissibility of testimony regarding the fires at Green Spring Depot, was heard by the judge in chambers. Mrs. Hall was not present.

Attorneys for the Commonwealth so the judge announced, had convinced him that testimony regarding the fires should be admitted.

Counsel for Mrs. Hall promptly noted an exception.

iWtnesses wil not be allowed at this time to testify as to all the fires at Green Spring Depot, but only the burning of Dunkum's store, and the second attempt to burn Hall's store.

It was announced that the defense expected to call Miss Elise Wood to the stand. It will not do so, however, until all the Commonwealth witnesses have been examined.

Dr. Thomas M. Taylor was put on the stand for a moment by Attorney Fulton and asked if Victor Hall could have killed himself. The pphysician was positive that Hall could not have committed suicide without a mechanical contrivance to pull the trigger, which mechanical contrivance Victor did not have.

The commonwealth suggests that it is a noticeable fact that although Mrs. Hall claims she found her husband "all crumpled up" on the floor, that not a drop of blood was found. The bolster taken from the Hall bed was saturated in blood.

The commonwealth wil endeavor to show that Victor Hall was shot while in bed, the ball entering the back part of the head near the top of the skull nad taking a cownward course, lodged just over the left eye. That after he was shot he was taken up, with the bolster, and dragged into the store. This, they say, accounts for the bolster being so bloody, while there was not a drop of blood on the floor.

WAR IS NOW AN ASSURED FACT

CLASH INEVITABLE

General Conflict Throughout Europe Now Believed to Be a Matter of but Few Hours.

Paris, August 1.—Diplomatic relations between Russia and Germany have been severed.

An official news agency dispatch received here from Berlin, via London, states that with the expiration, at noon of Germany's ultimatum to the Czar, arrangements were at once begun in both capitals for the taking over of the embassies by neutral powers. It is expected that the United States will be asked to act in both capitals.

London, August 1.—It is officially reported here that diplomatic relations between Russia and Germany were severed at noon today.

It is also reported here that the German Ambassador to Russia has already demanded his passports and started for the frontier.

Paris, August 1.—The German Ambassador to France has asked Myron T. Herrick, the Ambassador of the United States, whether he will take over the German embassy and act in behalf of Germany in case of hostilities between France and Germany.

Herrick has referred the request to President Wilson and is expected to receive permission. The situation is growing more grave.

London, August 1.—The situation is extremely critical along the Franco-German frontier today. It is feared that the first fighting which will be the signal for the opening of a general European war, will be between the French and German troops.

The border conditions have been brought to a critical stage, due to German troops stopping French trains, seizing the locomotives, and tearing up tracks.

It is reported that a detachment of German cavalry actually crossed the border and entered France. This has inflamed the French, although the Germans immediately withdrew.

Tracks were torn up and guns placed in position at Pagny Sur Mosalle. Four French locomotives were seized at Montreaux Vieux after the railroad tracks had been torn up.

After seizing French rolling stock and cutting the telegraph wires, Germans at Amanvillers, another frontier town, forced the French railway men to walk back to their own territory.

Motor cars carrying tourists have been seized by the German troops and their occupants sent back to French soil.

Large bodies of French and German troops are now patrolling the border. With the Germans seizing French property at unguarded points, it is feared fighting may soon break out on the frontier.

President Wilson today will appeal to the managers and representatives of the 55,000 engineers and firemen of the ninety-eight railroads operating west of Chicago on ground of patriotism to find some common ground for preventing the strike which threatens to tie up these roads. The President will see a committee of the managers at 2 o'clock this afternoon and at 4 o'clock will meet the representatives of the operators.

ELECTION IN KENTUCKY.

All Parties in Contest in Statewide Primaries Today.

Louisville, Ky., August 1.—Democrats, Republicans and Progressives of Kentucky, at the Statewide primaries today, will nominate their candidates for the United States Senate, representatives in Congress from 11 districts, and judge of the State Court of Appeals for the third district. Two candidates for the United States Senate will be chosen by each party—one to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator William O. Bradley, from November to March, 1915, and the other for the regular six-year term, beginning March 4 next.

The struggle in the Democratic party between former Governor J. C. W. Beckham and Representative A. O. Stanley for the long-term Senatorial nomination has been the overshadowing feature of the primary campaign. The liquor question is one of the issues in their contest. Mr. Beckham has declared for the county unit instead of the precinct unit in local option in which, it is declared, he has met opposition from the liquor interests. Mr. Stanley has declared himself an opponent of prohibition. Governor James B. McCreary is the third Democratic candidate for the long-term nomination.

Senator J. N. Camden, appointed to succeed Senator Bradley until the November election, is opposed for the short-term Senatorial nomination by General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans.

All the present members of Congress from Kentucky are candidates for renomination, excepting Representative Stanley, in the second district. Close races are predicted among the Democrats for Congressional nominations in the first, third and seventh districts and among the Republicans in the eleventh.

Judge Christian, in a letter published in a Richmond paper, presents evidence of the failure of prohibition wherever it has been tried.

A called meeting of the Common Council will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Chamber for the purpose of taking action and to make arrangements to attend the funeral of the late FRANK C. SPINKS.

PREPARING FOR THE TUG OF WAR

British and German Squadrons in North Sea Ready to Clear Decks.

ONLY AWAIT SIGNAL

French Government Seizes All Telegraph and Telephone Lines to Make Censorship Complete.

London, August 1.—The British war fleet, stripped for action, is mobilized in the North Sea. The German battle squadron, in the same condition, is off the south of Holland. They await the word by wireless that a state of war exists.

One German squadron is already reported stopping merchant vessels demanding their destination and manifest. Scout cruisers of both nations are reported patroling the coasts. The greatest naval battle in history is certain almost immediately following a declaration of war.

The British and German fleets are being augmented as fast as reserve ships can be placed in commission. Colliers and oil tanks with the necessary fuel to keep the bunkers of the warships full are being rushed to the rendezvous. Even warships are utilized for that purpose. All that cleared since Thursday carried their entire bunker capacity jammed in their forward decks piled with sacks of fuel.

Paris, August 1.—The French government has seized all French telephone lines, including the English submarine line. Telephonic communication is absolutely interrupted.

This was done to make the censorship complete. While the telegraph and cable lines have been supervised by the censor for forty-eight hours there was no way to check up on telephonic communications and military operators have been placed in charge of the exchanges.

London, August 1.—Great Britain's tentative war plans are complete. The cabinet perfected them at a two and one-half hours' siting today. It was admitted that the situation was serious and plans to meet every possible contingency have now been perfected.

Paris, August 1.—Germans are fleeing from Paris by hundreds today. Reports from Rome that Germany had demanded that Russia and France declare their neutrality within twelve hours resulted in panic in the German colony.

Brussels, August 1.—The entire supply of wheat in Antwerp was purchased by the Belgian government today. The government threatened to seize the wheat unless the price offered was accepted.

Constantinople, August 1.—The Constantinople bourse closed today.

DIED—At the family residence, 1448 Duke street, on Saturday, August 1st, 1914, FRANK C. SPINKS, Jr., in his forty-fourth year. Funeral Monday, August 3rd, at 5.00 p. m. from the residence. (Washington and Baltimore papers copy.

DEATH OF FRANK SPINKS

City Councilman From First Ward Passes Away After Long Illness.

Frank C. Spink, Jr., member of the City Council from the First Ward, and one of the best-known citizens of Alexandria, died at the residence of his step-mother, Mrs. Bettie V. Spinks, 1449 Duke street, at 7 o'clock this morning. He has been ill for the past six months and his condition has gradually grown worse until within the last few days but little hope was held out for his recovery.

Mr. Spinks was a son of the late Francis C. Spinks. He was 43 years old. In early life h became an employee of the Southern Railway Co., and was for a time a locomotive fireman. He became interested in politics upon reaching manhood and was a busy worker at the polls in this city. He was a member of the Alexandria Light Infantry during the Spanish-American War and was stationed at Camp Alger. In 1898 he became a member of the police force.

In 1900 he was a candidate for city sergeant against the incumbent, the late W. H. Smith. He received a large vote, but Smith was elected by a small majority. He later was elected to Council from the Fourth Ward and served three terms. Two years ago he was elected to Council from the First Ward, he having moved into that division of the city. He had two years more to serve in Council.

In 1901, with the late Charles Cuvilier, Mr. Spinks laid the first square of vitrified brick street in Alexandria, on King street, between Fairfax and Royal. He subsequently was engaged in other paving operations.

Mr. Spinks was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, No. 120; Mt. Vernon Royal Arch Chapter of Masons; Alexandria Lodge of Elks, No. 758; Alva Aerie, No. 871; Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the Relief Hook and Ladder Co. He took a great deal of pride in the latter organization and was for years one of its most active members. He was one of the organizers of the Collingwood Club.

Besides his mother, Mr. Spinks is survived by his wife, Mrs. Katie Curtin Spinks and three sisters, Misses Emma, Margaret and Ruth Spinks.

Mr. Spinks faithfully served the people of Alexandria during his thirteen years of service in Council. He always favored everything that would do the working people and poorer classes the greatest amount of good, and in consequence was regarded as the people's representative in Council. He bitterly opposed the sale of the electric light plant by the city and strongly advocated public improvements. Gifted with native wit and ready tongue, he took a prominent part in the debates of Council and was heard on every measure that came before that body.

Alexandria Lodge of Elks will hold a Lodge of Sorrow at their home on Prince street at 8 o'clock tonight to take action on Mr. Spinks' death.

The funeral will take place from the residence Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The Relief Hook and Ladder Company will meet tonight at 8 o'clock to take action on Mr. Spinks death.

The Common Council will meet in a called meeting tonight at 8 o'clock to make arrangemnts to attend the funeral.

TWO GAMES AT COVE.

The White Sox will play two games at the Cove Sunday. The first game at 2.15 p. m. with the Rosedales, and the second with the Potomac, both of Washington, D. C.

The White Sox with its new players, will put forth their bect efforts to capture both of these games, as they have been hard at practice.

MRS. ARMOR TO SPEAK.

Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, of Georgia, will make an address in the M. E. Church South, Tuesday, August 4, at 8 p. m. A collection will be taken. It is said of Mrs. Armor that she is a rapid talker, with clear, cut original phrases, given with earnestness that tells her heart is in her work, a face beaming with intelligence and speech betraying, an effort to crowd in more words than is possible in her eagerness to tell the story with which her whole mind, her whole energetic nature is filled.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

On August 3rd, I shall open a summer school at the Lee School for the purpose of coaching pupils who are deficient in their school work. Terms $2.50 per week for one subject, and special terms for additional classes.

COLDEST DAY OF MONTH

Mercury Descended to 75 Degree Mark Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday was the coldest day of the month, the highest temperature being only 75 degrees at 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. At 6 o'clock yesterday morning the mercury was down to 57 degrees. These temperatures were 11 degrees below normal. In fact, the entire month was below normal, for the average temperature for the month was 76 3-10 degrees.

The presnt cool spell, according to the weather man, is short lived. for already winds from the South are blowing and this, of course, means warmer weather. The cold spell of the last few days was due to the winds from the north and northeast, bringing in the ocean breezes. From all indications there is a great ice field somewhere in the North Atlantic which is chilling the winds. While the winds from that direction are always cooler because of the ocean, they are never of the temperature of the last few days, except when icebergs are present.

While there is no rain in sight at the present time, there is a possibility of a shower or two today. The forecast is probably fair.

FOLLOWED BY GHOST.

Boy, Haunted by Fear of Man he Surrenders.

The Kansas City Star says.

"Always the ghost, of the man I killed was before me. It would rise up in the night and keep me from sleep; it would appear before me in the daytime when I tried to work, and I couldn't get away from it a moment."

Thus did Charles Wheltley, 19 years old, who gave himself up to the police, describe the pangs of a guilty conscience which has tortured him since the time of his crime. He declared he had killed Lee Thompson, a brakeman on a train in Arkansas. Wheltley said the killing was on the night of March 14th, on a freight train between Gilbert and Harrison, Ark.

He was "bumming" a ride, he said, and in a fight with the brakeman who tried to put him off, the brakeman fell between the cars, struck with an iron bolt Wheltley threw at him. The coroner's inquest declared the death was due to acident.

"I tried to forget," said the boy, "but I couldn't. All hours of the day and night the man's face would rise up before me just as it looked that night."

METHODISTS TO BOYCOTT FAIR.

Conference Adopt Strong Temperance Resolutions—Address by Dr. Cannon.

Norfolk, Va., August 1.—The session of the Norfolk District Conference came to an end here yesterday after a highly interesting and profitable course of meetings. Perhaps the most interesting event of the session was the action of the conference on the question of Statewide prohibition, in regard to which the conference unanimously adopted strong resolutions commending the action of the last General Assembly in passing the enabling act, and the great work of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia. The report strongly endorsed the work of Dr. James Cannon and his associates in the leadership of the fight against the legalized liquor traffic. In regard to the action of the directors of the Virginia State fair in securing a license for a saloon on the fair grounds, the conference expressed its strong disapproval of the action and urged the Methodists within the bounds of the district refrain from attending the fair if liquor is sold on the grounds.

WILD SCENE AT NEW ORLEANS.

Cotton Exchange Closes and Prices Drop in Spectacular Manner.

New Orleans, August 1.—The cotton market was brought to an abrupt end in the middle of the morning session yesterday by the Board of Directors, who considered that the European situation warranted the suspension of business.

During the hour and a half the market was open the prices dropped in spectacular manner. At their lowest the trading months were 106 to 135 points under Thursday's last prices. The range of prices for the day was 120 to 135 points. The close was at a net loss of 69 to 70 points.

Heavy buying by profit takers on the short side at one time resulted in a violent upheaval, which put the market 7 to 10 points over yesterday's close. From this there was an equally violent drop, based on the news of the failure of Northern cotton firms and resulting in the wildest scenes the market has witnessed in years.

There was a great accumulation Thursday night of selling orders in brokers' hands. The filing of these orders caused a drop of 38 to 43 points on the first call.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Pistol Goes Off, Bullet Striking Man in the Head.

Richmond, August 1.—Duncan E. Monroe, manager of the Richmond Trunk Manufacturing Company, was shot and seriously, if not fatally, wounded yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock in the home of his sister, Mrs. T. J. Melton, of Drewry's Bluff, Chesterfield County. The wound was self-inflicted, but is believed to have been accidentally done. The ball struck Mr. Monroe in the head, boring a hole clear through.

There was no witness to the accident. Mr. Monroe, previous to the shooting, had been cleaning the weapon, a .38-calibre revolver, and it was fired accidentally, the ball penetrating a desk. Relatives warned him to be careful, but he failed to heed their advice and continued fooling with the revolver. When the second shot was heard 25 minutes later, inmates of the house rushed into the room and found the wounded man lying on the floor with a gaping wound in his head and the smoking weapon at his side.

MORGAN'S STATEMENT.

Financier Still Hoping There Will Be No Great War.

J. P. Morgan, in New York, yesterday, after conferences with the leading bankers, issued this statement to the public:

"Alarming as the news is from Europe, we are still hoping that there will not be a general war.

"While the gravity of the present situation can hardly be exaggerated, there is still the opportunity for the sober second thought of the people of Europe to prevail over their first impulses.

"If the delicate situation can be held in abeyance for a few days I should expect a rising tide of protest from the people who are to pay for war with their blood and their property.

"The situation of the American security market during the past few days has been a splendid illustration of the inherent soundness of financial conditions in this country.

"While we all earnestly hoped that the New York Stock Exchange might be kept open, the situation is fraught with so much uncertainty that it seemed necessary in the interest of the whole country to close the exchange.

"It is essentially a time for the owners of American securities to keep their heads. Bear in mind that the actual properties represented by American securities will not suffer greatly by a European war.

"During the past few days the American people have been buying back American securities at low prices. Presumably they will pay for those securities when wheat and other products are at high prices.

"It is idle to say that America will not be hurt by a general European war.

"The wholesale waste of capital involved in such a catastrophe would result in a distribution of losses the world over, but the loss here would be infinitesimal compared with the losses to the countries immediately involved.

"There is no doubt that the whole American people will co-operate to restore normal conditions throughout this country at the earliest possible moment."

WARNS OFF WARSHIPS.

Commander of Danish Fortress Threatens to Use Force.

Copenhagen, August 1.—Preparations for the mobilization of the Danish Army were completed yesterday. The Cabinet has decided to issue a declaration of neutrality today in conjunction with a similar declaration issued by the governments of Sweden and Norway.

Both German and English warships were observed yesterday in Danish waters. Two German torpedoboat destroyers steamed close to the fortress at Middlefrund, a few miles from Copenhagen. The warships retired only after being ordered to do so by the commandant of the fortress, who threatened to employ force if they did not leave.

A German squadron, cruising off Langeland, in the Great Belt, is stopping all vessels to investigate their nationality and the destination of their cargoes. German torpedo boats have been observed near Giedeser and in the Cattegat, and German warships are patrolling between Sweden and Jutland.

Denmark has called out all persons liable for active service, particularly for the protection of the coast. Parliament, which has not been sitting, has been summoned to meet tonight.

Cable and telegraphic communication between Denmark and Germany has been suspended by Germany without notice to the Danish authorities. Telegraphic communication to many places in Germany also has been suspended.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

The startling scenes through which the world is passing in the second decade of the twentieth century naturally suggest the query at the head of this article. Nation is literally rising up against nation and wars and rumors of war are filling the air. Peaceful pursuits are experiencing rude shocks and, in the language of prophecy, "men's hearts are failing them for fear of those things which are coming upon the earth."

What does it all mean? is the anxious interrogation from many thoughtful souls. The advanced civilization of the past quarter of a century has caused some to indulge dreams that nations were to learn war no more, and certain optimistic people, posing as humanitarians and philanthropists, have argued that with modern armaments the clash of war was too horrible to contemplate; that nations would count well the cost before crossing swords.

All such hallucinations have passed away in the night, and the fact is apparent that the great mass of human beings are fired with a martial spirit and thirsting for each other's blood.

Two or three years ago a movement was started in the United States having for its object the conversion of the world to Christianity during the next twenty-five years. It was purposed to collect eighty million dollars to accomplish this great desideratum. Like the dove of peace, the propagators of this scheme are roosting high at present.

Notwithstanding the roseate pictures which have been drawn by well-meaning people during the past two or three centuries that the kingdom of heaven was about to dawn upon this storm-tossed planet, facts show that men are as fierce as ever, and that the beating of swords into plow shares and spears into pruning hooks is a work of some future age.

Certain representatives of Jewish theological thought, as well as some who are not of the Abrahamic stock, often proclaim that the twentieth century is the Messiah. If this be so, it is not of the meek and lowly spirit of which we read.

It is an ancient saying, "that what has occurred before is likely to occur again." Unreasonable and implacable men have from time immemorial drenched their swords in each other's blood, and it looks as though they are about to repeat the acts of their ancestors.

If the dispatches published in foreign capitals are correct, there can be no doubt that men are thirsting for war. In St. Petersburg, we are told, people are hugging each other in the streets, not for the purpose of expressing their joy that the beams of the long-hoped for millennium are visible, but that bloodshed is imminent.

The ultimatum which Emperor William is reported to have sent France and Russia is proof conclusive that he is not seeking peace. This monarch, who dropped the pilot of the German Empire (Bismarck) as soon as he took the place of his level-headed father, has been on dress parade ever since. The chip he carries on his head is as prominent as the phylactery of an ancient Pharisee. He has been a menace to the peace of Europe during many years and the time seems at hand when the question whether there are not other people upon the earth will be settled once and for all.

The little country of Servia, where the war flame was first seen, is grsdually passing into an eclipse as bayonets bristle in Berlin, St. Petersburg, London, Vienna, Copenhagen and far-away Japan.

Macaulay in his Life of Frederick the Great, in referring to that monarch's wholesale theft of Silesia from Austria, says this bold act set Europe aflame and its effects were apparent throughout the world, red men being spurred to scalp each other on the shores of Lake Superior.

There is every reason to believe that the long-presaged general war in Europe is about to be precipitated. Its effects will be more far-reaching those of the land grab perpetrated by Frederick the Great.

Stonewall Jackson's Aide Dead.

Warrenton, Va., August 1.—Capt. William Fitzhugh Randolph, 83 years old, Stonewall Jackson's aide, who was with the noted Confederate leader when he received his death wound, died here yesterday.

[Communicated]

FRANK C. SPINKS DEAD

Popular and Able Member of the Common Council Passes Away.

Our lives, not ours to give or hold—
A day of toil to win a night's repose,
Two nerveless hands—two feet at rest
—a prayer—
For these we wait—thus every life must close.

Yes, life and hope, and all we are,
With all the love our deeds have won—
Are but a handful in the shroud—
How soon the sexton's task is done.

The truly generous is the truly wise; and he who lives not for others lives unblest. There are some persons who have the privilege of being among men like beneficent stars whose light irradiates souls, and whose rays warm hearts. The greatest man is he who chooses the right with invincible resolution; who resists the sorest temptations from within and without; who bears the heaviest burdens cheerfully; who is the calmest in storms, and whose reliance on truth and virtue and on his God is the most unfaltering. Equal to this, and more, was Frank C. Spinks.

Battling against immense odds with a foe who was never known to lose a battle, the subject of this article has at last been conquered. When in life, no matter when you saw him, he had a word of cheer and comfort for those in distress, little dreaming that his own malady was hastening him to the grave. The plaudits of the world for service wrought never appealed to him. The greed of money was foreign to his makeup. He often said, "All I want is a living, and while enjoying that, I want to help someone else." And he did it. When the festive season came at Christmas, he was one of the first to dig down in his jeans and fill 25 baskets to be distributed by the Police Department to the needy and worthy poor. He never asked who they were given to, nor did he care. He trusted implicitly in the honesty of the men who dispensed his charity, and he knew they would not betray the trust. As a business man he was too liberal to amass wealth, and no one left his place hungry if in his power to render aid. As a citizen, the records of history of this town does not contain his superior. As a worker for the interests of his city—the place he loved—he was a stone wall in the Common Council against any encroachments upon its rights, and, even if alone, he would fight for his position until the power of truth in his arguments, though crushed to earth, would rise in majesty to proclaim him right in his stand. But, whether right or wrong, he fought with a zeal and earnestness that demanded the respect of his fellowman. But that voice is stilled, that eye is closed, that ear is deaf, that chair is vacant, not only in the home, but in the daily walks of life where his presence was like a refreshing shower to a famishing earth. No one knows the suffering of the deceased the past year—not only in body, but in mind. He was a devoted husband and his home was a heaven to him, presided over by the one in whom his whole life centered. It is indeed sad in this as in many cases. We come and go. The world moves on in its march from the cradle to the grave. The sun reflects its splendor by day and the moon's rays light up the sleeping earth, the birds sing their mating songs, the streams flow to the rivers and continue to the sea. Men live and die. The silver cord is loosed, the golden bowl is broken, and the pitcher is broken at the fountain. The dust will return to earth as it was; and the spirit shall return to God who gave it.

Good bye, friend Spinks, as thou wilt sleep
That sleep which knows no waking.
May seraph care conduct thee where
The eternal morn is breaking.

GEO. H. HAYDEN.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time. A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

COMMENDS WORK OF MILITIA.

Captain Arthur M. Shipp, U. S. A., Writes Complimentary Letter to General Sale.

Richmond, August 21.—In a letter to Adjutant General W. W. Sale, received here yesterday afternoon, Captain Arthur M. Shipp, U. S. A., inspector-instructor, Virginia Volunteers, highly complimented the officers and enlisted men for their conduct and work at the joint camp of instruction held at Gordonsville during the last ten days of this month. The praise coming from the officer detailed as an instructor at such a camp means much to the militia, as he must necessarily make a report to the War Department on his observations, and it is bound to be a complimentary one, after such a letter to the head of the State military establishment.

General Sale has not yet heard from Colonel Wilbur E. Wilder, U. S. A., who was commandant of the camp, but expects to receive a letter very shortly. Colonel Wilder, at a gathering of the officers of the First Virginia Brigade, expressed himself as being well pleased with the results accomplished by the militiamen while in camp.

BOY'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Locking Himself in Closet, Could Not Breathe.

Conshocken, Pa., August 1.—Mrs. Roberts Evans, of North Elm street, left home on a shopping tour yesterday and her two children, Robert, nearly 7, and Helen, 5, played hide-and-seek to while away the time. It was Helen's turn to be "it," and Robert rushed upstairs and into the wardrobe to hide, drawing the door shut after him. The latch on the outside was sprung and locked.

Helen suspected that her brother was in the closet, but changed her idea when she saw the latch; and Bobbie wasn't alarmed, for he fully expected Helen would try to open the closet door; therefore, he made no noise.

Because he didn't make a noise, Helen decided he wasn't in the closet. A search of other rooms failed to reveal Bobbie, and Helen then figured that he had tired of the game and slipped away from home.

An hour later Mrs. Evans came home and Helen told her about Bobbie. Rushing upstairs, Mrs. Evans unlocked the closet door. Bobbie was on the floor, unconscious, the supply of air in the narrow space having become exhausted. A physician worked over the boy for some time, but it was several hours before Bobbie was "back to normal."

TOURISTS MAY HAVE TO WAIT.

Some May Not Get Home Before New Year if War Comes.

New York, August 1.—In the event of the threatened conflict involving all the greater European nations, four steamers of the American Line controlled by the International Mercantile Marine Company, and two of the Red Star liners, would be the only liners that could cross the Atlantic in safety from capture.

Of all the hundreds of ocean steamships that enter this port, only six fly the American flag.

The American Line steamers that would then become so popular are the New York, Philadelphia, St. Louis and the St. Paul. The Red Star boats are the Kroonland and Finland. The other ships of that line fly the Belgian flag. If an open break between Germany and Russia occurs before the Vaterland sails today the big German ship will be running the risk of capture by Russian gunboats. If war is declared after the vessel leaves this port it would be safe, being protected by rulings of The Hague. One of the greatest tides of ocean travel on record in the direction of America is looked for by all steamship lines.

Reports at local steamship offices indicate that the question of getting safely home before the guns begin to thunder is already causing something approaching a panic both among the regular members of Europe's American colonies and still more among the tourists now there.

The best possible estimate obtainable puts the number of American citizens now traveling in Europe at 150,000. This is based on figures of the steamship companies, which show that 166,000 persons went abroad in the cabins of all transatlantic steamers up to July 24. Of these about 16,000 include foreigners or Americans who have already returned.

ARMOUR SAVES WHEAT PIT.

His Millions Preclude a Panic on Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, August 1.—Armour's millions yesterday rescued the wheat trade from panic. Instead of chaos resulting from a settlement day in the midst of a war market, with possibly scores of firms embarrassed and a virtual certainty that bankruptcies, few or many, would ensue, the Chicago Board of Trade was enabled to maintain its record of never having closed, no matter how great the emergency. Tonight not a single failure had taken place. The chief reason was that 75 entangled firms and individuals on 'Change were freely given today by Armour & Company whatever aid the necessities of the situation required.

MAY PROVE FATAL WOUND.

Serious Affray Yesterday in Cumberland County.

Farmville, Va., August 1.—Cumberland courthouse was the scene yesterday morning of a terrible tragedy, when, in a fisticuff between several of its citizens, Charlie C. Corson received a pistol shot wound which it is believed will prove fatal.

A difficulty arose on Wednesday between Donald McRae, Larkin C. Garrett and Willie Corson, the latter a brother of Charlie Corson. A fisticuff ensued, in which the three engaged. On Wednesday morning, Charlie Corson went to the courthouse and another row followed, in which both R. O. Garrett, deputy clerk in the county, and his brother, Larkin C. Garrett, took part.

Report has it that Corson was getting the better of the fight, when one of the Garretts drew a pistol and, placing it against Corson's abdomen, shot him down. The ball passed through his body, and the physicians hold out no hope for his recovery.

Charlie Corson was in Farmville on Wednesday at the time of the first trouble between his brother and the Garretts, and it had been reported to him that two men engaged in the fight against his brother, who was alone. It is also reported that when he went to the courthouse Wednesday to inquire into his brother's difficulty he was unarmed and so stated the fact to the Garretts before the fight commenced.

MURDER IN BALTIMORE.

Mrs. Minnie Beolsky Strangled And Stabbed to Death.

Baltimore, August 1.—Slain, it is believed, by a former lover, Mrs. Minnie Beolsky, 38 years old, was found strangled and gashed to death in bed on the first floor of her home, 203 South Exeter street, yesterday morning.

A bloody razor was found on the floor, between the wall and the side of the bed, and two blood-stained handkerchiefs were found beside the bed. One was a man's large handkerchief. Both were crushed, and the blood marks indicated that they had been used to wipe blood from the hands.

Money and bankbooks amounting to more than $4,000 were found on the woman and among her effects. A mass of $20 bills, aggregating $580, was found loosely placed between her corset and kimono, and $8 in bills were found in a stocking. Three bankbooks were found. One, on the Hopkins Place Savings Bank, showed a deposit of $2,007.99; a second, on the Savings Bank of Baltimore, had a $500 deposit, with no withdrawals, and the third showed a balance of $986.44 with the Provident Savings Bank. She wore four rings, one of them a wedding ring.

The woman had been known as Minnie Cohen. She married a man named Sherman in 1908, but after two weeks of married life obtained a divorce from him on the ground that he had deserted hr and had also taken her savings. She had been married previously, and had three children, the eldest now 17 years old. About a year ago she moved to the Exeter street house, where she lived in seclusion. The former admirer, it is thought, learned her whereabouts and tried to win her back. The woman's husband is at present away at work on his vessel, a bay steamer.

RUSSIA CALLS RESERVES.

Czar Gives Audience to German Ambassador—St. Petersburg in Frenzy.

St. Petersburg, August 1.—An imperial proclamation calling all the army reserves in St. Petersburg to the colors was placarded yesterday. The Emperor of Russia yesterday gave an audience to the German Ambassador and subsequently presided over a full council of ministers, attended by the Chief of the Army General staff.

The population of the Russian capital kept awake throughout the night, and the streets resounded with the din of patriotic demonstrations. A quick succession of special editions of the newspapers kept the excitement at boiling point, and the vendors had a hard time in supplying those anxious to see the latest dispatches which, in many cases, were read out aloud to the public round about.

Great processions paraded the streets, the demonstrations carrying banners and portraits of the Emperor. Cheers were given for the Emperor and the army.

Impromptu meetings were held in all parts of the city and the suburbs, and orators roused their audiences to an unprecedented frenzy of enthusiasm.

The tension of feeling was so great that utter strangers on the street in their patriotic excitement greeted and embraced ane another.

The seriousness of the situation appeared to be fully realized.

COFFEE PRICES ADVANCE.

New York Exchange Votes to Close Until Monday.

New York, August 1.—The coffee exchange members voted yesterday to close the exchange until Monday, owing to the general demoralization in the commercial and financial markets of the world and in response to many requests from country roasters, who were alarmed over recent wild fluctuations.

The local spot market developed firmness during the day, and transactions were on a more liberal scale, with Rio 7's quoted at 7 3-4 cents and Santo 4's at 11 cents.

The advance in spots was due to high war risks on shipments from Brazil and fears that foreign steamers, which now carry almost the entire trade with that country, will be recalled for military transport duty.

HEAVY LOSSES.

Desperate Fighting Continues Between Austrians and Servians on the River Drina.

London, August 1.—A dispatch from Nish to the Exchange Telegraph Company says desperate fighting continues along the River Drina. Both Austrians and Servians have sustained heavy losses.

The Austrian divisions, after fighting fiercely yesterday, failed to force the defile leading to Pievile and Priepolie.

Official confirmation of the reported blowing up by Russian troops of the railroad bridge between Granica, Russia Poland, and Sadzakova, in Galicia, on the railroad from Warsaw to Vienna, has been received here.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at Courthouse of the said City on Thursday, July 9th, 1914.

Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

John Nauman, Defendant.

IN CHANCERY.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that he cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against the said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of wilful desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit, and to do what may be necessary to protect his interest in this suit. "Tuxedo is always welcome. A pleasant smoke, a mental bracer—the ideal tobacco."

"A pipeful of Tuxedo puts new life into me. The mildest and purest tobacco grown."

GEORGE E. PHILLIPS

"A good pipe, and Tuxedo to fill it, and I'm satisfied. The tobacco in the little green tin has no rival as far as I am concerned."

You Smoke a "Better" Tobacco —Why Not Smoke The Best?

THE tobacco you now smoke you consider "better tobacco than you ever smoked before." Naturally, you kept trying until you found a "better" one.

But it stands to reason that since there is a difference in tobaccos, you may be missing still greater pleasure in a still better smoke—in the BEST smoke, in fact.

Tuxedo is the best smoke because no better tobacco leaf grows, and no process of treating tobacco leaf equals the original "Tuxedo Process."

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

We know that Tuxedo is made of the BEST tobacco—rich, mellow, perfectly aged Kentucky Burley. None better can be bought, because none better is grown.

It is treated by the famous original "Tuxedo Process" for removing the sting and bite of the natural vegetable oils.

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have sprung up.

No other tobacco can e the unique pleasure Tuxedo because no other maker has yet been able to equal the Tuxedo quality.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

ALEXANDRIA'S BEST STORE

A Somewhat Different Announcement of the

D. BENDHEIM & SONS

SUMMER CLEARING SALE

This advertisement is a test of your confidence in the D. Bendheim & Sons way of doing things. Without a single description or price, it heralds the greatest money-saving event that this store has ever launched.

Monday and for the following days of the week, as long in fact, as there is any summer merchandise to sell, we are going to hold our Summer Clearing Sale. Clearing sale stands for something at Alexandria's Best Store.

It is not a mere empty name. It means to the purchasing public the most sensational price concession of the half year. It means to us the moving out quickly of large quantities of small lots of merchandise which we do not wish to carry over. Stocks have been gone through with care and exactness. Prices have been placed lower than we have ever placed them in a semi-annual clearance.

There are enough special offerings to fill this even if they were mentioned in the most casual way. Every offering is worth coming for and worth owning. Will you come?

THE RUSSIAN BEAR.

The peoples of All the Russians are ready now to go to war; Laplanders from the Arctic Ocean and the White Sea, Finns from Bothnia, Germans from the Russian provinces on the Baltic; Greeks, Turks and Armenians from Odessa and Sebastapol; Black Sea Cossocks, Arabs from Bokara, once the Athens of Central Asia; dwellers in ill-fated Poland; men of the kingdom of Georgia in the Caucasus, and of the Tartar kingdom of Kazan whose crowns are a part of the imperial crown of Russia; wine merchants from Astrakhan on the Volga, "City of the Golden Horde;" Persians from the petroleum fields of Baku; mining magnates from the gold, malachite and emerald mines of Siberia, belonging to Russia in Asia, which exceeds the whole area of Europe by 2,000,000 square miles; East Indian traders who are Russian subjects in Orenburg; Chinese who are Russian subjects on the desert steppes of Gobi and Kiakhta where Russia is merged into China; Tartars who are Russian subjects in Urga, the sacred city of the Mongols., and Tartars, who are prosperous Russian subjects and peasants in the Ural Mountains, where the traveler may see the marble obelisk facing upon one side Europe and upon the other Asia—these, the peoples of All the Russians, await also to accept war or peace as Nicholas II. shall decree, through his bureaucracy, and his ring of grand dukes.

The Czar is so fabulously rich that he cannot possibly know how much he does possess. Our American millionaires are comparatively poor beside him. At the ceremonies of state he wears in the jewels of his imperial diadem and decorating his robes a fortune worth millions of dollars. One diamond alone, one of the largest on earth, which adorns the sceptre he carries in his hands, is valued by itself at a million and a half.

To describe his palaces in different parts of the Empire and his wonderful picture galleries, containing thousands of paintings and pieces of statuary, would fill a big volume.

His yearly income is colossal. He has mines yielding gold and silver, which he sells to the Russian government to coin into money; mines yielding marble and granite bought by contractors for stately edifices all over the world; mines of malachite and lapis lazuili, which you see in the great columns of famous cathedrals, museums and libraries and sometimes in the mantlepieces of the sumptuous homes of the very rich; and then other mines where the women bring forth from the bowels of the earth baskets full of such lively stones as the emerald, the turquoise, the beryl and the aqua marine, which are sold by the Czar's agents. He has revenues also from houses and factories, and from thousands of acres of farming land; while each family in the empire, from the wealthiest merchant down to the poorest peasant is taxed, in addition, to add to the revenues of the Czar.

EIHAIWEI DESERTED.

British Consider Place Not Worth Defending and Make Hongkong Naval Base.

Peking, August 1.—The British fleet has deserted Weihaiwei and sailed at midday with sealed orders, thus fulfilling its long-standing orders. The British considered the place not worth defending.

Hongkong is to be made the British naval base in Chinese waters and in case of war the German possession of Tsing-Tau is to be blockaded.

Weihaiwei had no fortifications, while Tsing-Tau is fortified on both the land and the sea sides. The Germans believe that the fortifications will afford them ample protection.

The crews from the British river gunboats dismantled at Hankow yesterday are to be taken on board the battleship Triumph, which hitherto had been manned by only a nucleus crew.

Most active preparations are going on at Hongkong in view of eventualities.

The Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Asia has been chartered by the government and guns are being mounted on board.

At the dock yards work is proceeding night and day and double guards have been placed on duty.

All the troops have been confined to barracks and leave has been stopped.
